

PEOPLE FOR SALE IN CANADA?

Human Trafficking Community Awareness Day

Tuesday
May 19, 2009

Hosted by The Salvation Army
Ontario Great Lakes Division
Human Trafficking Committee
371 King St., London, ON

This gathering will help service providers to understand Human Trafficking in their local context, provide tools to identify victims and generate an integrated community response to assist those trafficked.

Best Western Lamplighter Inn & Conference Centre
591 Wellington Road South, London, Ontario

Registration: 8:30 a.m. Conference: 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Registration Fee: $75.00 Space is limited, so take advantage of our Early Registration fee: $65.00 before April 20, 2009

*Continental breakfast provided and lunch can be purchased at various locations nearby*

Registration forms available from Ministry Units or by contacting Jennifer
Thompson at The Salvation Army Divisional Headquarters

371 King St. London, ON N6B 1S4

Phone 519-433-6106 Ext. 333 Fax: 519-433-0250

Email: jennifer\_thompson@can.salvationarmy.org

Guest Speakers

Victor Malarek has been a journalist for more than three decades. Currently he is a senior investigative reporter with CTV. Malarek has done extensive research on Human Trafficking and has just released his most recent book: The John's: Sex for Sale and the Men Who Buy It.

Constable Kris Arnold is a member of the Peel Region Police and is currently working in the Morality Bureaus' Vice Unit. She was responsible for laying the first Human Trafficking charge and assisted with the investigations that led to the first 2 Human Trafficking convictions in Canada. Constable Arnold travels across Canada with the RCMP and teaches other officers how to apply Human Trafficking legislation.

Marty Van Doren is a retired superintendent with the RCMP and is now the Human Trafficking Awareness Coordinator for the "O" Division. He supports Human Trafficking related matters through the delivery of information sessions, conducting research, collecting data and monitoring Human Trafficking investigative activities.